

Sponsorship Opportunities for THE WHITE MOUNTAIN

What Is This Book—The White Mountain—About?

The White Mountain: 365 Days of Mischief and Adventure on Mount Washington will follow Dan Szczesny over the course of a year while he takes part in as many events and happenings as possible on New England's highest peak. The book will be published by Hobblebush Books (a New Hampshire-based publishing company that has specialized in fine books since 1991—www.hobblebush.com) and will be available in spring, 2018.

Why Should I Sponsor This Project?

This will be the first true compendium of Mount Washington. As such, this book will appeal not only to New Englanders, but also tourists and travelers from around the world. Your contribution will help make this project possible, bringing eyes, ears, and appreciation to a beloved part of New Hampshire culture and nature, and will bring attention to your company through some or all of the ways outlined in our Sponsor Level breakdown below.

What Will My Contribution Be Used For?

Any money you contribute will be used primarily for enabling Dan to participate in all of the necessary events and for research. A small portion will also help offset the printing costs so that the book may have color photographs throughout.

How Do I Become a Sponsor?

Becoming a sponsor is easy! Just contact author Dan Szczesny at danszczesny@gmail.com, or by using one of methods at right. If you have any questions or would like to discuss things further before committing, that's fine too. Our hope is to make your contribution to this project as beneficial to you as it is to us.
